

ARTS CONSERVATORY FOR TEENS

Education, Empowerment, and Enrichment
What Inspires You?

Course Syllabus

Acting: Stage, Acting: Musical Theater
100 and 101 | Beginner & Intermediate Learning
Fall Semester September- December 2015
Class Day: Tuesday, 6:00-7:00 P.M.

Course Instructor: Hannah Barrens

Office: 727.346.8223

Email: hbarrens.act@gmail.com

Room: Office Use Only

Enoch Davis Center | 1111 18th Avenue South | St. Petersburg, Florida 3705

Course Description:

Beginning/Intermediate Acting is designed to teach the basic skills, concepts, and methods of the modern realistic acting technique. The class will provide students the opportunity to strengthen their powers of concentration, focus, analysis, imagination, creativity and empathy that are critical to every art form.

Course Objectives:

To explore the art of telling stories through live acting. Students will learn to work together, build trust, and involve every member in a performance.

Material Required

Notebook, pencil(s), clothing that is easy to move in (eg. cotton t-shirts, basketball shorts, yoga pants).

Course Exhibits/Performance/Showcase/Demonstration of Skills

Showcase/Demonstration of Skills: Beginning of November (Date TBA)

ACE (Arts and Culture Exposure)

Field Trips TBA

Course Attendance and Participation Policy

Students must be present at a minimum of 90% of classes and showcases/exhibits of artworks unless absence conflicts with school requirements, illness or an emergency beyond the student and/or parent control. Should absences occur, the student and/or parent must notify the instructor by e-mail and/or call to inform the instructor of the absences.